After the "Obscure" EP and the "Cursed by Ascended Darkness" 7" it is about time to take the next step further into the deepest of vaults... Finally, German necromancers NEKROVAULT have exhumed their first full-length recording! And it truly has been a Festering Peregrination until the Totenzug took form - presenting the band in its darkest and most threatening manifestation, yet.

The less "necro" the recording may appear, the more crushing and brooding are the songs on "Totenzug: Festering Peregrination" - a necessary improvement to fully convey the primal darkness that rests within each of the songs. Musically far more diverse and heavier than before, the album tells stories inspired by grim local folklore, necromancy and - of course - Dis Pater himself... All of these are masterfully visualized by the mighty Misanthropic-Art. A musical and visual monolith of death awaits... join the Totenzug!
