Opis produktu

POZYCJA POWINNA BYĆ DOSTĘPNA NA POCZĄTKU PAŹDZIERNIKA !!!

Comes in a beautiful digipack CD,.

Abramelin’s self-titled 1995 debut is a landmark in the Australian Death Metal scene, featuring some of the heaviest riffs ever recorded Down Under and deranged lyrics brimming with unbridled brutality and violence!

Australian Death Metal for the most part has been really solid. Abramelin does nothing to deter from that thought and “Abramelin” is known by many death metal fans as a classic.
These Aussies laid forth a chunk of brutal death metal in 1995. Around that time, the established sound of the Florida scene and even in other areas such as Sweden had begun to morph into something else as bands attempted to prevent stagnation. One such new avenue of creativity was to simply get heavier, louder, and more punishing, and by those standards Abramelin’s self-titled debut delivers on every level.

Now available again on CD and vinyl, this long overdue re-issue brings back a true underground classic from one of Australia’s most overlooked Death Metal bands.

• Much sought after album on CD and LP
• Abramalin remains active and records new music still
• Part of three re-issues that include the Acheron (pre-Abramelin) recordings and their EP (with bonus tracks)

For fans of: Sinister, Deicide, Demigod, Brutality
