Opis produktu

Packaging: 2x 180g smoke vinyl. Solid gatefold cover on reverse board with silver details and interior print, black inner-sleeves with padding, and album download on a specially designed card.

Available for the first time as a standalone vinyl. A collection of material from the demo era of the band.

Audio material was taken from the original analog sources. Aside from some slight mastering to keep the songs at an even volume and vinyl mastering, nothing was edited or polished. This collection includes era-related artwork and photos from a January 1998 session.

Tracks 1-3: taken from "From Which of This Oak" (Omits "Foliorum Viridum")

Tracks 4-6: taken from "Of Stone, Wind and Pillor" (Omits "Kneel to the Cross" [Sol Invictus cover] and "A Poem by Yeats", which were recorded later [circa 2001] than the songs included here, which themselves were from an unreleased EP recorded in 1998)

Tracks 7-8: taken from "Promo'98".
