Opis produktu

The noxiously heavy new album from AHTME.

Technical death metal monsters AHTME have unveiled ‘Hair Of The Hog’, the first single from new album Mephitic, a noxious mix of wizardry and brutality, delivered with obscene ferocity, out 24th July via Unique Leader.

The band comment: “With this new album we tried to include plenty of different flavors, enough to satisfy any palate. But ‘Hair of the Hog’ has a classic taste, something everyone recognizes. The type of meal that just slams into your gullet like a beer bong full of taco meat. Dig in! ”

Surgically precise guitar riffs, a groove-driven ultra-sturdy rhythm section, topped with raw, violent roaring vocals, come together to create AHTME.

Forming in Kansas City Missouri under the name The Roman Holiday, AHTME bring a signature and unique sound to the table. After a long journey solidifying their sound, they renamed as AHTME and their 2018 debut album under that name Sewer Born turned many heads, establishing them firmly in the US death metal scene.

Relying more on groovy, and catchy riffs to grab their twisted audience by their necks and slam them to the ground. The quintet always delver something you can bang your head to, all while maintaining the guarantee to pick even the thickest of tech scabs off the arms of those interested only in speed and precision.
