As the mighty Evil has come to man, so has ANTICHRIST SIEGE MACHINE summoning the darkness with their third LP "Vengeance Of Eternal Fire" set for release on April 19th. Expanding upon the latent evil in their hearts and inspired by the prophecies of Old, ANTICHRIST SIEGE MACHINE cast their lot with the demons of Hell. Each track on "Vengeance Of Eternal Fire" bearing the banner of violence and chaos, furthering the duo's commitment to utter brutality.

ANTICHRIST SIEGE MACHINE have solidified support within the underground and after a highly successful touring cycle in support of their previous LP "Purifying Blade", the band will focus on the live assaults in co-ordinance with "Vengeance Of Eternal Fire". Following many sold out shows in the US and Europe, including multiple runs in the US on their own with multiple fest appearances (MDF, Psycho Las Vegas, NWTF, Mass Destruction, Destroying Texas to name some), several dates as direct support to Emperor, and US tour runs with bands such as Demilich and Miasmatic Necrosis. Also part of the "Purifying Blade" campaign the band have conquered Europe on a UK/IRE tour with Full Of Hell, and a full European tour with labelmates Spirit Possession.

"Vengeance Of Eternal Fire" was recorded and mixed by Matt Michel at Viva Studio with vocal recording by Bob Quirk and mastering by Arthur Rizk. Album art by Burney.
