Opis produktu

The third title in our most popular series of books, this title has sold out multiple times since it was released.

Description: 316 pages and over 150 photos, many previously unpublished, including 16 page colour/gloss photo section.

Written by Dayal Patterson. The third book in the Black Metal Cult series, following Black Metal: Evolution of the Cult and Black Metal: The Cult Never Dies Vol. One, focussing on Norwegian black metal, Polish black metal and the depressive black metal subgenre. Originally released in 2016 and translated into multiple languages since.

Designed to be read as either a separate work or as part of the series and presented with a somewhat more old school aesthetic.

This is the first time the book has been issued in hardback format in English and includes a colour photo section. To be clear, unlike Evolution of the Cult, this is not an expanded edition, and containts the same text as the original paperback. The only addition is the colour photos.
