Opis produktu

After releasing the Interdimensional Extinction EP, BLOOD INCANTATION returned with a 34-minute cerebral whirlwind of powerful atmospheric death metal. The intense and otherworldly technical/ambient/funeral death metal of "Starspawn" leaves the listener feeling transcendently disembodied at the end of an unknown dimension. Produced entirely in analog, the energy and magnetism of live BLOOD INCANTATION is tangibly melting through the speakers, and the songwriting, production and performance constellations have all fully aligned.
