Opis produktu

After a 16-year-hiatus, legendary Swiss Technical Thrash Metallers CORONER reunited to play a handful of highly anticipated live shows in 2011. In 2016, CORONER followed their live-comeback with the limited “Autopsy” 3x Blu-ray + LP / 3x DVD + CD documentary/live/best-of release via Century Media Records / Sony Music and announced plans to release a new studio album, 25 long years after the band's last studio album (“Grin”, 1993). In preparation of such upcoming studio album release, CORONER’s revered 80’s catalogue is finally being re-released now: “R.I.P.” (1987), “Punishment For Decadence” (1988) as well as “No More Color” (1989) have been carefully re-mastered and are now finally available again on CD, LP and as Digital Download for the current generation of Metalheads to rediscover the group’s outstanding, timeless and highly creative early output. Look out for further info on more and new CORONER material coming soon...
