Some words by JRG of DBATCOTLH:

'Around ten years ago there were talks about doing a collaboration record with Urfaust, in the vein of all the other collaborations we did with Aluk Todolo, Mhönos, White Hills or our last one with King Dude.

The modus operandi was always the same, one band makes a basic track, sends it to the other band to complete it and vice versa. Since Albin and me loved Urfaust, we were both totally excited about it. He then made a basic track, a typical Albin one, a happy, major scale, acid electro track. I told him: „You can't send it to the boys, it's completely inappropriate." He, in his typical challenging and mischievous manner, said to me that he puts all his trust in the band to make something over his basic track. Somehow this never materialized, haha.

Years passed, Albin died, Urfaust disbanded, the rest is history.Fast forward to 2024:
BLTZR contacted us, said he remembered Albin's basic track which would perfectly fit for Bradung and asked if we would still be up for a collaboration. If yes he would send us a basic track they made for us. So here we are, announcing a collaboration 12" with Bradung that's out now through New Era Productions!'
