Opis produktu

Poland’s Melodic Black / Death Metal DEVILISH IMPRESSIONS are back with "Postmortem Whispering Crows" EP – a follow up to their critically acclaimed 4th studio record “The I”. Music wise "Postmortem Whispering Crows" simply continues where “The I” left off. Having introduced some rock-like solos on the latest full-length this unreleased tracks seem to be characterized by even more open approach to the genre. "Postmortem Whispering Crows" is an epic journey across Black Death Metal with the band's own, unique flare to it.

Quazarre (vocals / guitars) on the lyric content of an EP:

“One of my all-time greatest inspirations has always been literature of The Young Poland, a modernist period in Polish literature, covering roughly the years between 1890 and 1918. The movement promoted trends of decadence, neo-romanticism, symbolism, catastrophism and impressionism.

Having quoted “Dzieci Szatana” (Satans Kinder) by one of the period’s visionary Stanisław Przybyszewski within the lyrics of our “Adventvs” EP, it’s been a logical way for me to immerse both “The I” and “Posmortem Whispering Crows” EP even deeper into the decadent world of other haunted figures associated with the philosophy of their leader. The quoted authors following the period’s concept believed in decadence, an end of all culture, the conflict between humans and their civilization, and the concept of art as the highest value.”
