...Into the night with your heart so bold...

artificial light is the heaven for the moth coming home...

This is the second chapter of the three cycle release FEUER, NACHT and TOD from the (DOLCH) collective...

NACHT feels like a very personal and intimate art of communication of sound and word to us. It can be read as an interpretation of a journey through the night, an urban trip we experienced while writing and recording this album in Seattle, Los Angeles and Berlin some time ago.

It can also be read as a display of the state of the mind and soul, feeling like being covered up by a dark night, floating between the spheres of euphoria and depression, between love and fear, light and darkness.

We want to thank everyone who helped us doing this! This album is dedicated to every soul that once was lost... Thank you!

Produced by: Selling Horse and Michael Zech in Los Angeles, California and somewhere in Bavaria
