Opis produktu

In over twenty years Einherjer has carried out their vision. They were there when Norwegian extreme metal grew forth and took shape as an enormous cultural export. They played far and wide. At home and abroad. They were part of something new, something special and innovative. They were there when Norwegian metal gathered and inspired thousands. They were there and swung the hammer when Viking metal was forged as a unique expression that later inspired countless bands worldwide. Now the horns of war sound again and Einherjer is there.
