Goatlord Corp. now returns as a completely new and almost unrecognisable entity. Combining high-end song-writing skills and musicianship that are the result of many years of perfecting, with “Temple of Serpent Whores” the band has elevated itself to a whole new level.
The tracks flow like an unstoppable whirlwind of Satanic violence. Ferocious and malevolent, the songs are intense like Hell and incendiary as fuck! The tireless drums are full of wit and welcome variation, and the guitars create this awesome wall of sound, with riffs that just never get dull.
On this album, Saint Vincent once more proves that he takes his role as vocalist seriously, showcasing his vast vocal potential and adorning the music with quite a few memorable highlights.

The sound & mix guarantees the best possible way to experience this kind of Black Metal: perfectly outbalanced without becoming clinical, thus maintaining all its brutality and sharp edges.
As a cherry on the cake, the custom-made cover artwork by the hands of David Glomba turned out spot-on, as expected.
All in all, with this impressive blast of an album, the Black Metal scene better make way for an undeniable force to be reckoned with!
