Opis produktu

The 2017 debut studio release by Hellripper on limited gold vinyl.

High-octane, blackened thrash/speed metal at its finest.

Inspired by the likes of old-school legends including Venom, Kreator, Sabbat [JPN] and Metallica, James McBain formed Hellripper in 2014 and with the release of the debut EP The Manifestation of Evil shortly after, the Scottish band was already making a very clear statement of hellish destruction with an electrifying brand of blackened thrash. Building on the momentum of the debut EP with a string of split releases, the debut album Coagulating Darkness was released in 2017 to media acclaim, with the UK’s Metal Hammer hailing Hellripper as “Scotland's King of the arcane mosh” & the band receiving attention throughout Europe and the US. This was followed by the EP - Black Arts & Alchemy, before an eventual deal was inked with Peaceville, resulting in 2020’s trailblazing The Affair of the Poisons, succeeded by the 2023 opus 'Warlocks Grim & Withered Hags', which propelled the band even further to the forefront as a pinnacle of current metal greats.

For a debut album, Coagulating Darkness demonstrated a startling maturity and clear sense of direction throughout its eight track duration, with McBain single-handedly crafting and recording a set of blistering, timeless metal anthems in a relentless high speed attack of ferocious riffing and masterful soloing.

This edition of Coagulating Darkness is presented on limited gold coloured vinyl.
