In early 2020, IOTUNN set for Gothenburg, Sweden, where Fredrik Nordström (In Flames, At the Gates, Dimmu Borgir) mixed and mastered their new album at Fredman Studios. The result is 'Access All Worlds'. Seven songs driven by creative curiosity and artistic honesty. Seven songs that initiate feelings and reflections. 'Access All Worlds' is an epic; a cosmic and contemplative journey of energetic beauty and ferocity that reflects on human existence set in a storyline following daring space travelers. The music is grounded in roaring, colorful drumming and crushing bass, while the sonic horizon is painted with a vast spectrum of guitar-driven expression, all overarched by narration through diverse vocals.
