Opis produktu

Classic Death Metal recorded at Sunlight Studio by Tomas Skogsberg in 1993.

Konkhra re-issues much sought after debut on LP again and deluxe 2-CD (with all pre-album demos). "Sexual Affective Disorder" is the debut full-length studio album by Danish Death Metal band Konkhra. The album was originally released on Progress Red Labels in July 1993. "Sexual Affective Disorder" was recorded at the now legendary Sunlight Studio in Sweden and produced by Tomas Skogsberg and Konkhra. Konkhra had been roaming the Danish underground scene since the early nineties and steadily increased their fanbase with the "The Vicious Circle" demo from 1990 and the "Malgrowth demo" from 1991, both featured on the 2-CD edition as bonus. Also included is their first official release: the "Stranded" EP from 1992.

The music on "Sexual Affective Disorder" might be described as old school Death Metal mixed with technical Thrash Metal elements. The vocals on the album are influenced by the high pitched sneer/deep guttural growl Carcass vocal style, so a clear Death Metal approach. The technical playing is used to keep the songs exciting all the way through the album. Songs like "Center Of The Flesh", "Blindfolded", "Chaos To Climb" and "Empty Frames" simply blow one away every time. The addition of samples in some songs also give the album a great atmosphere.

The production is raw and not too polished but clean enough to be able to hear what's going on, that great Sunlight Studio sound. Listening to "Sexual Affective Disorder" is always a pleasure.
