LIMITED 30TH ANNIVERSARY MARBLE VINYL PRESSING OF THE CULT CLASSIC 1996 NORWEGIAN BLACK METAL MASTERPIECE

1996's ‘For Kunsten Maa Vi Evig Vike’ by Norway’s engimatic cult titans Kvist, stands as an underground classic which has only been solidified as the years pass, and is regarded as one of the greater examples of the symphonic black metal genre. Cold & uncompromising, Kvist offers black metal loosely in the style of early Dimmu Borgir, Satyricon, & Emperor, yet still maintaining their own distinctive sound and edge.

Throughout 6 intricately crafted epics of dark cold atmosphere, ‘For Kunsten Maa Vi Evig Vike’ is a storm of melodic black metal, with lyrics written in the band’s native Norwegian only heightening the feel of the album. The album was recorded at Endless Sound Studios in Oslo (Turbonegro). Kvist only released this one album before the band split up, marking it now as a timeless release, with members later going on to join acts such as Urgehal. Kvist briefly and mysteriously re-surfaced in 2022 with a demo recording of a new track, featured on Peaceville's 'Dark Side of the Sacred Star' compilation.

This special 30th anniversary pressing of ‘For Kunsten Maa Vi Evig Vike’ is presented on limited marble vinyl.
