A book devoted to the works of Timo Ketola. 2nd print.

480-page hardback book with two silk ribbons, headbands, thread sewn round spine and printed cloth cover.

This book, while not comprehensive, provides a complete perspective of Timo's life's work: from his youthful early teen years to his death in 2020.

We chose to use Timo's own words throughout the book to illuminate some of his decisions and approaches to his own art, as well as his thoughts on music, art and the occult. The only exception to this is a foreword to put some context in place for those picking up the book that might not know the breadth of his work.
