Opis produktu

A 2016 Peaceville label reissue of Morta Skuld's second album of brutal Death/Doom (from 1994).

Includes the rare bonus track Sacrificial Rite.

Morta Skuld formed in Milwaukee in 1990, going on to release three albums on Peaceville Records (initially via legendary sub-label Deaf Records) in the early-mid 1990's, with the band's debut Dying Remains seeing its release in 1993.

Released in 1994, As Humanity Fades was Morta Skuld's follow-up to its widely hailed debut. Featuring a further evolution of the band's brand of death/doom metal, it comprised the same line-up headed by band mastermind and guitarist/vocalist, David Gregor

This edition of As Humanity Fades contains remastered audio, plus the rare bonus track, Sacrifical Rite; a demo track which was re-recorded during the album sessions.

140g vinyl edition featuring the original artwork.
