Opis produktu

Florida Death metal, feat Gene Holgan, Chuck Schudiner as guests

Naphobia was formed in 1989 and released two demos and one full length titled ‘Of Hell’. The band played their final gig in 1996 opening for Napalm Death and At the Gates. ‘Of Hell’ was recorded by Keith "Thumper" Collins (Savatage and Jack Starr’s Burning Starr bass player). The last three tracks feature Gene Hoglan (Death, Dark Angel) on drums and were produced by Chuck Schuldiner (Death) who also partly played a guest lead on one track. Drums on the first 6 track were played by Tony Laureano (ex-Malevolent Creation, Nile, Brujera). Bonus to the album is the second Naphobia demo called ‘Cultivated Innards’ from 1993. This six track demo is recorded by Megadeth’s (first two albums) drummer Gar Samuelson. Booklet and cover art are carefully restored and designed by ACW (Hellwitch, Asphyx, Ceremonial Oath). The ‘Cultivated Innards’ demo is remastered by Tom Palms (Phlebotomized guitar player, Sinister, Infernal Majesty remasters). The booklet contains extensive liner notes from vocalist Nikk and guitar player Kenny.
