Opis produktu

With thirty years of active, nefarious service under their bulletbelts, NECROPHOBIC are undisputed legends of the death and black metal underground. Formed in 1989 by drummer Joakim Sterner, the Stockholm based outfit propagated a singular and fearless vision from the very start, confirming their prowess with now legendary debut album The Nocturnal Silence in 1993. Eschewing the self-conscious amateurism and primitive sonics that many of their peers held dear, NECROPHOBIC established a bold and vivid identity of their own, conjuring a densely melodic but endlessly wicked take on macabre extreme metal that countless lesser bands have since emulated. With “Bloodhymns” NECROPHOBIC re-release their fourth full-length record, which was originally released in 2002. The Swedish black death metal legends are re-launching this album as one out of nine upcoming re-issues in total. As for the previous re-released classics of NECROPHOBIC, this also is a must have for every Black & Death metal maniac! A well-produced Swedish mixture of death metal with black metal ingredients resulting in a dark and cold madness. Like the earlier releases “Hrimthursum”, “Death To All” and “Satanic Blasphemies” this year, “Bloodhymns” was also remastered by Dan Swanö at Unisound Studio. The album will be available as Ltd. CD Jewelcase in slipcase, LP & 2-page insert with an A2-sized Poster and Digital album.
