Opis produktu

Diehard edition on swirl dark yellow mixed with black vinyl, limited to 100 copies.

New mastering made from a band's lost and found source exhumed years after F.O.A.D.'s 2016 reissue and sounding better than ever! Raw, extreme and BESTIAL blackened Death Metal at its most savage form. Recorded in fall 1985 and following their classic debut Demotape "Sons of evil", this second chapter offers another journey into the realms of sonic perversion and mental obscurity. This LP offers another chapter in POISON's uncompromised evil, keeping the original sound the most faithful and pristine as possible with that claustrophobic feeling of cavernous horror that no other band has been able to recreate at so crude dimensions. Alternating moments of ultra-fast (for the time) proto blasting mayhem with slowed down breaks of suffocating doom, "Bestial death" recalls the sickest elements of Hellhammer's demos and of course the school of Venom, or to keep it closer to Teutonic savagery, Sodom on their "Witching Metal" demotape. Deluxe sleeve with restored original artwork, poster and a 16 page fanzine styled booklet including old interviews, reviews, flyers and rare photos. Licensed and approved by the band!
