Opis produktu

Serious competition for SADUS's "Illusions" album, not kidding you!

Solid black vinyl limited to 250 copies. Ultra fucking FAST Sicilian thrash-core mayhem!! New reissue faithfully reproducing the original pressing on Crime Records. One of the earliest bands in Italy to introduce the blast-beat formula on Thrash/Death songs. This is one of the most representative extreme metal records out of Italy's 80s scene. Insanely THRASHING and VIOLENT!! If you also count in the early stuff by their brothers-in-mayhem NECRODEATH (as a matter of fact, half of the songs on this album had NECRODEATH's former screamer Ingo on vocals), SCHIZO were among the first pioneers of hyper-speed driven thrash emerging from Italy, that in more simple words equals "the first blast beats to ever land on the Italian Metal territories". Housed in a reverse board jacket with the addition of an insert with lyrics and rare photos of the time.
