Digipak with 8 pages booklet

We're honoured that swedish 70s rock music quintet Spiral Skies join forces with AOP Records

Their fabulous long awaited debut album "Blues for a Dying Planet" will be released on May 18th, 2018.

With influences ranging over decades, Spiral Skies has created a sound that can most easily be described as “On other planets kinda Rock”.
An unique blend of folk, doom and 70s rock music. The band has been compared to band such as Jefferson Airplane, Curved Air and The Devil's Blood, to name a few.

The band has spellbound their audience with their unique visual performance with intense and enchanting live shows, and their earlier releases EP “A Queendom to Come” gained a lot of attention on Bandcamp, resulting in the following single “Event Horizon”.

"An orchestra from the labyrinth of your mind, the sound of light years passing by, the sound of the ride of Spiral Skies"
