Opis produktu

While Spirit Adrift made many take notice with their debut album "Chained To Oblivion", it is on "Curse Of Conception" their stellar second album, that the band has taken a giant leap forward in songwriting prowess, production and confidence. From the Metallica / Priest like opening moments of 'Earthbound' to the epic closing of "Onward, Inward", Spirit Adrift are aiming sky high with burning focus and peak vigor. With a host of fantastic albums released by their contemporaries lately, Spirit Adrift has taken their craft to an ascendent new level on 'Curse Of Conception' earning their rightful place among the top tier of modern metal bands clawing their way above and beyond the underground scene. Now more than at any time metal has become the lifeblood of rock music and Spirit Adrift offer 'Curse Of Conception' as an embodiment of that perseverant vitality. Spirit Adrift's third album 'Divided By Darkness' delivers on the promise first revealed on 'Curse Of Conception' and then advances far beyond it in every way achieving a timeless album for the ages. First single 'Hear Her' pummels with the concise urgency and unforgettable chorus of a vital radio hit while 'Angel & Abyss' has the classic progression that leads from reflective ballad to rapturous anthemic triumph. The continued evolution of Nathan Garrett as a top vocal talent in modern Heavy Metal shines through amidst the masterful musicianship and huge production value engineered by Sanford Parker. Among the many stylistic divergences within rock and metal, Spirit Adrift's 'Divided By Darkness' understands that there is no substitute for huge ambition, soul-bearing lyricism and most importantly the ability of a pristinely penned riff and impassioned chorus to alter hearts and minds. Astonishingly 'Divided By Darkness' is Spirit Adrift's heaviest and most accessible album to date and will stand as the apex of Heavy Metal songcraft in 2019.
