More than twenty years after the original release, two Black Metal masterpieces have now finally been made available again! Two defining albums that set the tone for the Swedish scene around the millennium switch, deeply hooked into the old and steady pillars of true Black Metal.
Recorded already in 1997, “Bloodline” should have been released as Svartsyn’s 2nd album, but due to several problems it was only released years later, together with “…His Majesty” as 2LP.

Now for the first time ever, Nomad Snakepit Productions has the honour to release both albums separately on vinyl and for the first time on cassette-tape format as well! Two different colour versions for each release!

To make it even better, both albums feature exclusive unreleased bonus tracks: “Bloodline” features two never before released Svartsyn tracks (“Vampyrisk Sömn” and “Tronets Slav”) taken from the first “Bloodline” recording that ended up being discarded, plus the album’s lyrics that had been lost and were therefore never before presented either!
