Opis produktu

Home - from 2006 - was the eighth studio album from The Gathering. A dark and emotional concept work based about daily routine, it was the last to feature lead singer and lyricist Anneke van Giersbergen.

Produced, mixed and engineered by Attie Bauw, who was also at the helm during the How to Measure a Planet? recordings, the album was recorded in a church in Maurik, the Netherlands.

Drummer Hans Rutten described Home as being, “More stripped-down and primitive, more concentrated on song structures".
