Opis produktu

White 12" double vinyl (33 rpm) with a UV-print on D-side in gatefold sleeve.
First pressing: 200 copies worldwide.

THY CATAFALQUE has rarely done obvious music. Mastermind Tamás Kátai prefers to compose lasting songs that demand patience and only slowly reveal their stunning beauty and sinister depths. With his sixth album 'Sgúrr', the Hungarian achieves an even more balanced and subtle approach.
Continuing on the course set by previous full-length 'Rengeteg' (2011) which helped him reach a wider audience, the multi-instrumentalist weaves a colourful tapestry of sounds with strands of metal, folklore, rock and even some jazz as well as pop.
THY CATAFALQUE’s musical amalgamation is so eclectic, lush, surprising and one of a kind that the only tag it can rightly bear is definitely “avant-garde metal”.
With a sweeping album like 'Sgúrr' backed by impressive new guests, THY CATAFALQUE is ready for the next step.

For fans of SOLEFALD, ARCTURUS, ULVER, NEGURA BUNGET.
