Opis produktu

GoatowaRex vomits a split-LP of malevolent decadium in DEATH and MADNESS. This is not the kind of release that features 2 unrelated bands that merely don't have enough material for a full-length album and don't have enough marketing power for a mini-LP. Tyrannic and Sluggard are previously both known for killer releases with Australian underground labels Abysmal Sounds and Aurora Australis. With a year in the making, this split-LP was constructed with inherently consistent vision. Both bands offer the most developed and powerful sound to the date, tyrannical black metal with doom laden, 2 tracks clock at 25 mins, long epic journey of heavy metal darkness to the ultimate death. Sluggard is the incarnation of multi-instrumentalist, well refined crushing, yet boundariless METAL of death.
