Opis produktu

Black shell cassette with white on-body print and 2-panel j-card. Limited to 100 copies.
One of the forefront figures in the true underground Polish Black Metal scene are back with a new demo, four exclusive and unreleased tracks from their forthcoming first full-length.

Vermisst offers four hymns inspired by the glory days of hateful eastern European Black Metal. This cassette is an ode to the coldness, forgotten realms and forlorn damned souls, using keyboards to generate a darkened ambience which recalls the great days of the Polish underground Black Metal scene.

released February 4, 2022

'Chłód Rytualnego Mroku' was composed in total isolation under the cold winters and moonlights influence. Recorded in the last days of the now defunct 2021 by the Vermisst‘s core members Belath (guitar), Vorghast (vocals) and featured the session work of Umbra (bass/drums) and Din -Tah Aeon (keys).
